

Follow the fill level of your waste containers with advanced wireless sensors and learn when collections are done and where waste management operations can be further streamlined. Enevo's waste analytics solution allows you to track your waste generation and get detailed information on how much you are diverting from the landfill by recycling.