

The Indicorps Fellowship requires a complete investment of your time and focus for a minimum of one full year.* The program starts with an intense, month-long orientation, which includes an introduction to grassroots development in India, the Indicorps philosophy and simple living. Over the course of the Fellowship, Fellows attend periodic workshops in which they come together to reflect, share progress, collectively solve challenges and deepen their understanding of India's development.