

Our goal at Emburse is to help businesses take control of business expenses and organize financial transactions. Use Emburse to make your business perform like never before.

Peter is a second-time entrepreneur who, prior to founding Emburse, co-founded Crocodoc, a document embedding service that was acquired by Box in 2013. Peter holds three degrees from MIT (B.S. in EECS, B.S. in Cognitive Science, M.Eng. in EECS) and is the author of multiple patents for web and search technologies.
